CAWTHORNE ANNIVERSARY

A recent Sunday was a happy day for Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Cawthorn, of 66 Chestnut Street, East Orange, N. J. They celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with a reception for 150 members of their family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Cawthorn were married in Appomattox, Va., in 1898. They farmed 400 acres near the famous Civil War battle ground for many years. They specialized in tobacco, corn, rye, and wheat, and also raised chickens and cattle. Twenty-two years ago they gave up the farm and moved to a 12-room house in East Orange.

Members of the family helping them celebrate included Mr. and Mrs. Cornelious Cawthorn and family, of Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. Duane Barney, of Whippany and family; Mr. and Mrs. Rufus K. Cawthorn and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cawthorn, of East Orange, and their families, and Mr. and Mrs. David Cawthorn, all of East Orange; Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Cawthorn and son, Charles III, of Caldwell; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lorenz, and son, of Dover; Mrs. Bascom Price, of Farmville, Va.; Mrs. E. A. Covington, of Appomattox, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Luppy, of Pompano Beach, Fla., Dr. and Mrs. James V. Sordill and family, of West Orange.

Also Mrs. Cawthorn's four sisters, Mrs. Guy Smith, Mrs. Lloyd Goin, Mrs. Glover Jones and Mrs. Douglas Martin, and Mr. Cawthorn's sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith, all of Virginia. Other relatives included Mrs. Wilfred Price and Mrs. Vara Harrington, of Farmville; Mr. and Mrs. John Cheatham, of Frederick, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Powell, of Springfield, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. James Haley, of Lynchburg, Va.

A buffet was served with the three-tiered wedding cake as the center of attraction. James Haley offered the blessing and prayer, and Cornelious Cawthorn said grace. Mrs. Cawthorn wore a gown of blue chiffon over taffeta and had a corsage of orchids. She is 79 years old and Mr. Cawthorn is 84. Both are in good health and Mrs. Cawthorn who does all her own housework, is happy cooking fine meals for her family. Her husband delights in playing checkers, watches television and reads.

The actual date of the wedding anniversary was October 11. All nine children, 16 grandchildren and five great grandchildren, and five adopted grandchildren were present for the occasion. The couple received many gifts, cards and flowers.

EVANS URGES POLIO SHOTS BE TAKEN

The current polio epidemic in Detroit, Mich., is a vivid reminder that paralytic polio will remain a threat to every community in the nation as long as millions of Americans neglect vaccination, T. DeWitt Evans, chairman of the Appomattox County Chapter of the National Foundation, declared today.

"What is happening in Detroit could happen here," Mr. Evans said. "There are far too many unvaccinated individuals in our country and many others who have had only one or two shots. While expanding our program to take in arthritis and birth defects, we must not lose sight of the third face of crippling—polio. It is still with us."

By the end of September more than 650 persons had been stricken with polio in Wayne County (Detroit), half of them paralytic, and more cases were being reported each day, the chapter chairman revealed.

"We have been fortunate in our county this year in that the polio rate has been light," Mr. Evans said. "However, with many of our children and young adults unvaccinated, we are probably as susceptible to an outbreak as Detroit."

The Wayne County Chapter of the National Foundation is now spending almost $50,000 per week on care of the victims of the epidemic, and the chapter estimates that it will need more than $1,000,000 for aid to patients by the end of the year.
